

Nokesville 4-H Club
Meeting Minutes – January. 4 .2013

The meeting was called to order by President Megan Kolwicz on January 4th 2013 at 7:06 P.M. at Nokesville Church of the Brethren. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Katie Saul and the 4-H pledge was led by Trae Kohn. After the pledges, Megan offered a moment of silence for police officer Chris Yung and the Sandy Hook Elementary students and teachers. Mrs. Arnold briefly talked about future meetings and events coming up soon including Share the Fun and Presentation Training.

The cloverbuds were dismissed at 7:10 for camp cloverbud. Libby Arnold read the minutes of the previous meeting and was approved as read. The song leaders, Calah, Jackie and Gavin Saul accompanying them with a beat sang “Jingle Bells” and “Happy Birthday” to Mrs. Hutchens, Jamison Johanson, Trae Kohn, and Sean Harrigan. The Treasurers Report was read by Katie Guber and was approved as read.

Officer and Committee Reports

- Megan Harrigan (Corresponding Secretary) read a thank you letter from Jan Hawkins with SERVE saying she appreciated all the people that helped with Operation Turkey in November. She also read a letter that identified where our Operation Christmas Child boxes were delivered.
- Gavin Saul (Health Officer) gave a report on the overuse of antibiotics.

Recreation

- Matthew Arnold and Katie Guber led a game where we used skittles in a listening game to introduce ourselves and others.

Old and Unfinished Business

- Mr. Kolwicz talked about the Christmas cards we made. He took them to an injured veteran hospital.
- Marie Lerch talked about the SERVE breakfast on December 29th.
- Shelby Kohn talked about the Nokesville Christmas parade on December 4th.

New Business

- Megan Kolwicz said that Junior Camp Counselor applications were due soon if you were interested and 14 years and up.
- Libby Arnold gave a report on Presentation Training coming up on January 22nd.

Project and Club Reports
