

The meeting was called to order at 7:10 by President Marie Lerch at the Nokesville Church of the Brethren. We started off the night with the pledge of allegiance led by Elijah and Isaiah. Next, the 4-h pledge was led by Gavin Saul.

At 7:14 the cloverbuds were excused to camp cloverbud led by Mrs. Zuspan.

After they were excused, the secretary's report was read by Calah Puryear and was approved.

The treasurer's report was then read by Jackie Nguyen and was approved.

For the Organizational leader report Mrs. Arnold talked about officer training coming up.

The song, "alive, awake, alert" was then led by Shelby Kohn and Libby Arnold. They also sang happy birthday to our November Birthdays, Sheridan, Katie Guber, and Megan Harrigan.

For officer reports, Libby told us about the meetings community service projects that night the collection of canned vegetables for Operation Turkey, Operation Christmas Child, Wreaths Across America.

For recreation, Calah led us in a game called "knot of knowing" to help us get to know everyone a little bit better.

Then during old and unfinished business, Gavin told us about Megan Kollwitz's pumpkin carving party and how much fun it was.

During New Business, Emily told us about parade float and committee for the Nokesville Christmas parade. Mrs. Arnold told us about opportunities to volunteer at Rainbow Therapeutic Riding School and get trained as a horse leader.

Ms Owsenek talked about officer training and the requirements to be an officer.

Mr. Zuspan, talked about a community service opportunity.

For project reports: Libby and Mrs. Arnold talked about the last horse project and some dates for the upcoming meetings. Mrs. Harrigan then talked about the sewing project and the dates to come. Elilis then talked about the dog project on behalf of Mrs. Miller.

David talked about the district match. Madison told us about the information for the Poinsettia and pecan fundraiser.

The cloverbuds returned for camp at 7:52.

Mrs. Owsenek led the Officer campaigns for the program.

The officers elected were:

President: Megan Kolwicz

Vice President: Shelby Kohn

Secretary: Libby Arnold

Co-secretary: Megan Harrigan

Treasurer: Madison Miller

Historian: Tori Pelletier

Parliamentarian: Anya Owsenek and Megan Harrigan

Health officer: Gavin Saul

Song Leaders: Jackie Nguyen and Calah Puryear

Rec leaders: Katy Guber and Matthew Arnold

Safety and logistics: Matthew Arnold and Trae Kohn

The meeting was adjourned at 8:42 pm