

Minutes: December 8, 2017

Activity Prior to meeting:

Community Service time 7pm – painted ornaments to be hung at an assisted living home in Manassas – Caton Merchant House

Nokesville 4-H Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Matthew Arnold at 7:45pm. The President welcomed returning members as well as new members. Minutes were read by Matthew and moved to approve by David Kotlowski, seconded by Eric Kotlowski. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Sean Harrigan and the 4-H Pledge was led David Kotlowski. The Treasurers report was read by David K. with the balance at $1,220.43

Recreation - none

Song - none

Cloverbuds - excused and Megan Harrigan led them in Christmas crafts.

Officer and Committee Reports - none

Old and Unfinished Business:

- Mrs. Arnold reported that last month's community service pumpkin centerpieces were delivered to SERVE and warmly welcomed for their Thanksgiving dinner tables.

New Business

Matthew talked about Presentation Day trainings coming up in January and how important it is for everyone to attend these trainings and plan to give a presentation. He also said that Jan. 30th is State Capitol Day and everyone should try to come.

Project and Club Reports - none

Program – Emily Lerch arranged for videos to be shown. One was about life skills – a 4-H promotional video, and the other was a testimonial from Jennifer Nettles.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm.

The club finished the Christmas ornament decorations and cleaned up to go home.

Respectfully submitted by
Matthew Arnold, Club President